

YOUNG@HEART CHORUS PERFORMANCE FEE 2013

$10,000 fee per 90-minute concert

The Young@Heart Chorus (Y@H) is about 39 people including chorus and crew, all of whom need round trip transportation, food, and lodging for the entire trip from day of departure to day of return. All of these costs are in addition to our performance fee.

The Presenter is responsible for round trip flights with baggage and handling fees and ground transportation between airports, hotel and venue. Cost of round trip bus and gratuity are the presenter's responsibility. If there is air travel, musical equipment must be provided by the Presenter. Depending on distance, the Y@H may travel solely by bus. Cost of round trip bus, gratuity, food and lodging for the bus driver are the presenter's responsibility.

The Presenter is responsible for feeding the Y@H 3 meals per day, catering and/or per diem at the rate of $25 per person per meal for our travel and performance days.

The Presenter is responsible for lodging at a minimum of 3 stars hotel. Usually about 27 rooms, both single and two bed rooms. This number can change due to gender of company members on tour and guests. On a multi-stop tour, it is possible to share the hosting and transportation costs with other presenters. Y@H cannot travel to a new hotel and perform on the same day.

The fulfillment of all technical requirements (sound, backline, lights, video projection, local labor, etc) as outlined in our Technical Rider is the responsibility of the Presenter. Presenter agrees to meet all terms of the comprehensive technical rider. The rider is an integral part of the agreement and must be fully understood.

Presenter is responsible for performance rights fees. Y@H will pay on invoice from the Presenter for Guest Costs on tour.

Hosting a company of elderly performers involve some special considerations mostly regarding safety and access to medical care.

There are many more details that form our contract. This is just a general overview. For more information on booking Y@H, email us at info@youngatheartchorus.com or call 413-587-1300.
